The Harmony of your Deliberations has given no less Efficacy than Dignity to your Proceedings; and I am confident that you will carry with you the same Disposition for promoting the Public Welfare to your Residence in the Country, where your Presence will encourage the Industry of the People, and where your Example and your Influence will be happily exerted in establishing general good Order and Obedience to the Laws.

I am to thank you, in His Majesty's Name, for the liberal Supplies which you have given for the Public Service, and for the honourable Support of His Majesty's Government. They shall be faithfully applied to the Purposes for which they were granted. My Reliance upon your decided Support to the Execution of the Laws for the just Collection of the Public Revenue, affords me the best founded Hope, that the Produce of the Duties will not fall short of their estimated Amount.
